

THE 2018 SPRING MEETING
Sunday 13th May at the St Alban's Centre, Holborn

A Buffet Lunch at 1.00 pm
will be followed, at approximately 2.15 pm, by

No Fond Return of Love

This year will see the 25th anniversary of the Barbara Pym Literary Weekend which was held at St Hilda's in 1993 as part of the College's Centenary celebrations. Probably the most memorable event of the Weekend was an adaptation of No Fond Return of Love directed by television & film director Tristram Powell and written by his daughter Georgia. The cast of this starry performance was Stephanie Cole, Susan Jameson, St Hilda's alumna, Kerry Corcoran and the late (sadly) Benjamin Whitrow. As a celebration of this anniversary, in this the 125th anniversary year of St Hilda's College, Tristram has kindly agreed to direct another performance of Georgia's adaptation at the 2018 Spring Meeting of the BPS in the St. Albans Centre, London, on Sunday 13th May.

(The Weekend, as many members know, also led indirectly, via the fondly-remembered Radio 4 documentary, A Very Special Occasion by Sioned Wiliam and Elizabeth Proud, to the founding of the Barbara Pym Society in April 1994. Elizabeth became the first Chairman)

Members & their guests are also invited to attend High Mass at 11.00 am in the adjoining Parish Church of St Alban the Martyr.
