Disclaimer: We provide this information as a service to our attendees, but we do not recommend any specific establishments. Listing on this page does not constitute an endorsement by the Society.

The hotel closest to Harvard Law School is the Sheraton Commander, a pleasant 5-10 minute, 0.2 mile walk across Cambridge Common. We have reserved twelve rooms at a group rate of $199/night (plus state and local taxes of approximately $29/night), approximately 10% less than their usual online rate. This rate is only available until February 14 or until all 12 rooms are booked, so early booking is strongly advised; check the hotel website for complete terms and conditions. If you phone the hotel (+1 888 627 7121), be sure to mention the Barbara Pym Society.

Other hotels near Harvard Law School include the Charles, Veritas, Harvard Square, and Porter Square hotels. It always pays to check the online travel web sites for discounts.

Nearby B&Bs include Irving House at Harvard, Mary Prentiss Inn, Parkside on Ellery, A Bed & Breakfast in Cambridge, and Harding House. There are also numerous Airbnb listings in the area.

The John Jeffries House, an economical option long popular with BPS attendees, has closed for extensive renovations and will re-open in 2019 as a “sophisticated, luxury boutique hotel.”

There are several other hotels that are just 2 or 3 stops away on the Red Line, either in Cambridge (Marriott, Kendall, Marlowe, and Royal Sonesta near the Kendall-MIT stop) or just across the river in Boston (Wyndham and Liberty near the Charles-MGH stop). And some of the large downtown Boston and Back Bay hotels (Park Plaza, Parker House) may offer better rates than those closer to Harvard.
